VIC and SUS cohabit and have one child in common. On the listed date VIC and SUS argued. When the baby began crying, the SUS yelled at the new born and threw his phone over the baby, which hit the wall and fell onto the baby's stomach (no injury). The couple continued to struggle when SUS stepped on the VIC's foot preventing her from getting away. The VIC had to push the SUS off to get away. The SUS then grabbed the VIC by the hair and struck her head against the wall causing visible swelling. The couple continued to struggle next to the baby where the SUS took the VIC's cell phone as she tried to call 911. The SUS threw the VIC's cell against wall damaging it and making non-operable. The SUS is outstanding. An affidavit was completed, EPRO Granted and needs service. Case to DA and cross report to CPS whom responded and took Child under W&I 300.
